

Tina Lewis Rowe
Training and Presentations that Inform and Inspire
Denver, CO – (303) 324-3988

Tina Rowe had an accomplished 33 year career in law enforcement--first on the Denver Police Department, where she retired as a Patrol Captain, then as the Presidential appointed United States Marshal for Colorado during the OKC bombing trials, held in Denver. Since 2002 she has brought her knowledge and skills plus engaging presentation style, to conferences, special events, retreats and classrooms.

- Presentations to thousands of audiences--law enforcement and private sector.
- Highly rated by officers of all ranks—chiefs, sheriffs and non-sworn professionals too.
- As comfortable energizing a classroom or team as she is encouraging and inspiring in a keynote address or special event presentation. She brings wit & wisdom to every audience.
- Her six-hour seminars on safety and security for places of worship are applauded by church leaders, teachers and officers. Over 25,000 copies of the e-book distributed without charge.

Training that is immediately applicable:
